NOTES FROM TRUSTEES

The beautiful autumn leaves are falling, the occasional fog rolls in then lifts to reveal a sunny clear blue sky, the mountain tops get a smattering or a dump of snow!! The sign we have one more month of autumn to prepare ourselves for winter!

Have you cleaned the filters in your heat pump? Do keep a check that there are no leaves on your paths that can become a slip hazard when wet!! Be mindful of the frosts that can catch you out with icy patches on paths and roads.

Upcoming changes

At the March meeting the Trustees discussed the increasing costs of maintenance for both the villas and the infrastructure. It was agreed that from 1st May 2024, the ORA Licence fees for incoming residents will increase as follows:

	Existing Rate	New Rate from 1 May 2024
2B/R Villa	$30,000	$42,000
Units (both double and triple)	$20,000	$28,000
1 B/R villa	$22,500	$31,500

Garden and Village Maintenance

Trustee, Caroline Breen and Garden Contractor, Matt are checking out what work needs to be undertaken around the Village grounds during the winter months. Their observations and discussions will assist in the ongoing care of and for what was created so many years ago. Other maintenance is ongoing.

Speed Restrictions

The Trustees have been made aware of a 'near miss' to a resident by a driver of a speeding vehicle when weeding one of the Village gardens recently.

PLEASE remind your carers, family, and friends to observe the 15Km speed restriction when in the village. We are also aware that some trades people are amongst the speeding drivers also. Raylene has consulted the care providers on many occasions about this matter. Ideally, we don't want to put in more speed humps.

Ideas and suggestions

Six years ago the Trustees invited residents to suggest ideas for improving your enjoyment of the village. For example: One suggestion was to have a swimming pool, another was to have a pool table. Health and Safety matters along with costs put the swimming pool out of the question. Space for a pool table was not available, however with a pending refresh under consideration for the Community Centre, is it time to reconsider this? What other ideas do you have? You are invited to write your suggestions and leave them with Ruth and Donna at the office before 13th May. The Trustees shall look forward to receiving your suggestions.

Helen and the MVV Trustees.

A good turnout for the 'Have a go Day' bowls afternoon on 8th April. We had 10 participants divided into 4 teams. Good to see some newcomers, hopefully some may become regulars, I know I will.

The weather was a bit 'iffy', however the 12 residents who travelled to Ashburton to visit Trotts Gardens enjoyed themselves. We strolled around the huge gardens then had a lovely lite lunch in the old Chapel. Very nice! A couple of unplanned visits on the way home, Ashfords and a drive around Lake Hood. We were back in the Village by 3.30.

'Have a go Day' for May will be Rummicub on Tuesday 14th May at 1.30pm, following Mothers Day on Sunday 12th.

We will look at arranging another away visit during Winter and would welcome any suggestions.

Bloke's Morning Tea—April Report

We had an encouraging turnout on Easter Mon saw 20 Blokes enjoy a Cupper & Chat plus a Video on Bamboo, a most Versatile member of the Grass family that has been used widely throughout Asia for 1,000's of Years. Some species grow up to 1m in a single day achieving total height of 20m. It flowers only once at approx 120 years then dies. New shoots are used as a vegetable and mature stems can be split easily and used for 100's of uses in construction (flooring, roofing designing, and scaffolding), furniture, food, biofuel, fabrics, cloth, paper, pulp, charcoal, ornamental garden planting, and environmental characteristics. It has a large carbon sink and is used to improve soil structure.

Thanks Marlene for your continued assistance, Catherine Gabites, who saved our morning following an SOS to sort out the TV, and Tea Stewards Jim S, David D & Fraser.

THE FROZEN RIVER by Ariel Lawhon

Reviewed by Lynne Kroening

The Frozen River is a captivating historical mystery based on the true life and diary of midwife Martha Ballard. Set in Maine, 1789, it explores Martha's family life and working life as she attends local women during their pregnancies (wanted and unwanted) and childbirth. In her diary Martha records every birth, death and local event and she keeps many secrets. When a man is found in the frozen Kennebec River Martha is called to examine him and decide a possible cause of death. He is the very gentleman accused of an alleged rape. Martha suspects the two events are linked and, over the course of a long, hard winter, she endeavours to solve the mystery while mounting prejudices threaten her family and community.

The Frozen River captivated me from the very first pages with its multi-layered text telling the story of a woman who fought for justice of those no-one else would protect. A book well worth reading.

KOOKABURRA COTTAGE by Maya Linnell

Reviewed by Kaye Cuthbertson

Set in the wine growing region of South Australia this book is a great light read. April Lacey has big ideas to update the family winery. A B&B in an old stable and catering in the wine cellar become her main project. She meets an English winemaker who eventually comes to work at the winery and is roped in to help with the update. They end up in a relationship which is almost scuttled by the arrival of his ex and all the hard work on the property is destroyed by a fake booking and an out-of-control party. But repairs are made to both the property and the relationship and all ends well. A light but fun romance story – a feel good read!

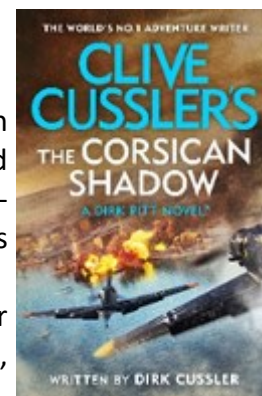

THE CORSICAN SHADOW by Clive Cussler, written by Dirk Cussler

Reviewed by Kaye Cuthbertson

A team of under water and marine oceanographers discover a ship that had been sunk in WWII in the English Channel. They found a cache of uncut diamonds on board and take them up to their ship. The two cases are stolen at night and the captain murdered. Two of the divers give chase resulting in a dangerous chase through the streets of Paris.

A company is in millions of dollars of debt and are intent on destroying vital water treatment facilities around the world in order to secure contracts to build new ones, putting millions of people in danger of running out of fresh water.

I wasn't sure I liked reading Clive Cussler, but this was a really gripping story – breath holding in places. Well worth the read.

UNDER A BIG SKY by Tim Saunders

Reviewed by Shona Connolly

A beautifully written book. The Author is a Poet, who together with his brother and 82year old father, farm 290 hectares of land near Palmerston North. The brothers are fifth generation farmers. The farm owned by the family since 1906.

Tim Saunders descriptive writing makes for easy reading and quotes like “The weather affected everything we did, and it was seldom exactly right. There was no point moaning about it, we just had to take what we were given and do our best”. As his father said “I’ve spent most of my life with one eye on the weather and the other on the past. Everything that affects us comes from the sky. The sun, the rain, and the wind. You’ve always got to keep an eye on it”.

There’s drought, farming during lockdown, illness, financial pressure, and the joys and challenges of day-to-day farming.

This book should be required reading for all. It provides real life insight into the challenges faced by the farming community.

A true, honest story about farming that really is worth reading. I intend buying a copy.

SECRETS OF THE LITTLE GREEK TAVERNA by Erin Palmisano

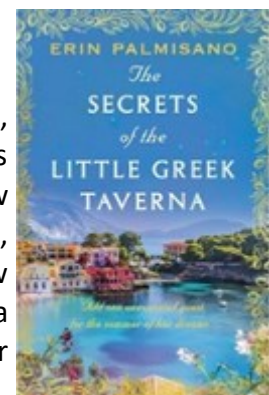

Reviewed by Kaye Cuthbertson

Jory has had travel in her blood her whole life. The daughter of a broken marriage, her mother moving around for work, her father, a very rich businessman. She works between adventures to pay for them and has the “Calling” to take off on a whole new one to the Greek Islands. With no accommodation sorted and it being late at night, she is offered a room at a new B&B and ends up staying to help the young widow owner fulfil her dream of a Taverna. While still going sightseeing, Jory meets a likeminded man who makes her “sizzle” but she has promised herself not to fall for anyone that will tie her down and stop her travels.

The Taverna opens and is successful, her friends arrive for a holiday, she believes lies she has been told, dumps the boyfriend, and is set to go travelling with her friends when he turns up at the port.

The end. You will have to read this charming story to fill in the gaps.

Thoroughly enjoyable.

A Word from the Wardens

On either the 15th & 16th of May, all residents in Mountain View Village can expect a visit from a team of men and/or women in a big red fire engine to come and check smoke alarms in your home. If you have any concerns or questions regarding fire safety, you are welcome to discuss these with the officers who will endeavour to answer them for you.

If you are going to be away on either of those days, perhaps you could arrange with a neighbour to allow fire personal access into your home to check your alarms.

Village Church Service—April Report

The April Church service was lead by Margo Goodman from Marchwiell St Philips & All Saints Anglican Church. She was ably assisted by fellow church members, Carolyn, Patsy and Pauline.

Hymns sung by the good number attending were, There is a Green Hill Far Away, The Old Rugged Cross and Great is Thy Faithfulness. Thank you to Elaine Caird, for kindly playing the piano.

The Bible reading was from the Luke's Gospel, Ch:24 from verse 35.
We responded to the Liturgy reading.

Patsy eloquently read the moving story, "Life to Live" by Margarett Hardy from Fairlie, from the book, "Fuel for the Soul". This is a modern day story about a Resurrection.

Next Service on Thursday 2nd May at 11am
Taken by Sue Varcoe from Life Church Timaru, on Morgans Road.

Book Reviews

Many of you will have seen and read the book reviews in the newsletter each month. What you may not realise is that we keep a copy of all of the reviews in a folder on a shelf in the Library. Maybe you arrive at the library sometime and you can't remember what the name of that book was, or you want some inspiration on what might be a good book to read. Please feel free to use this resource to help you in your book choices.

"SO YOU WANT A DAY OFF"

Resident Contribution

Let's take a look at what you are asking for. There are 365 days per year available for work. There are 52 weeks per year in which you already have two days off per week, leaving 251 days available for work. Since you spend 16 hours each day away from work, you have used up 170 days, leaving only 81 days available. You spend 30 minutes each day on coffee breaks, that accounts for 23 days each year, leaving only 68 days available. With one hour for lunch period each day, you have used up another 46 days, leaving only 22 days available for work. You normally spend 2 days per year on sick leave. This leaves you only 20 days available for work. We generously give you 14 days vacation per year, which leaves only one day available for work, and I'll be damned if you're going to take that day off.

OLD LADY WITH A PAST

Contributed by Shirley Malthus

*I'm an old lady aged eighty six, And you might think I'm past it
But I still like a night on the town, But nobody asks me, blast it!*

*I used to go out in evening dress, When I was young and flirty
Now I stay in and go to bed, Wearing a flannelette nightie.*

*I used to go without a bra, If I wore a strapless gown,
But I cant do that anymore...., It hangs too far down!*

*Instead of going out dancing, And tripping the light fantastic
I stay at home with my knickers, Threading in new elastic!*

*Ind days gone by I drank champagne, While dressed in satin and silk
Now I wear my warm dressing gown, And drink Milo made with milk.*

*I went out with lots of boyfriends, A different one every night
This evening, all that's going out, Is the fire, the cat and the light.*

"Why be a Volunteer"

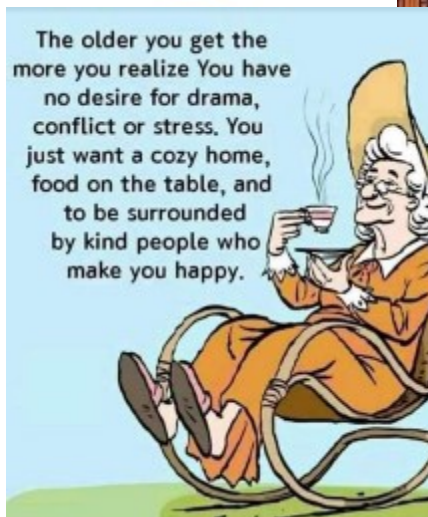

It's not for money, it's not for fame,
It's no for any personal gain,
It's just for love of fellow man,
It's just to lend a helping hand,
It's just to give a tith of self,
That's something you can't buy with wealth.

It's not for medals worn with pride,
It's just for the feeling deep inside,
It's that reward down in your heart,
It's a feeling that you've been a part of helping others far and near,
That makes you a VOLUNTEER.

Resident Contribution

The older you get the more you realize You have no desire for drama, conflict or stress. You just want a cozy home, food on the table, and to be surrounded by kind people who make you happy.
